

St. Michael's Hospital - Glass Hexagonal Perturbation - "Hive Brane"

Location Toronto, Ontario
Designer/Architect Christian Eckart
Duration Feb 2011 - Aug 2011

Scope - Soheil Mosun Limited was contracted to fabricate and install this large suspended work of public art at St. Michael's Hospital in Toronto.

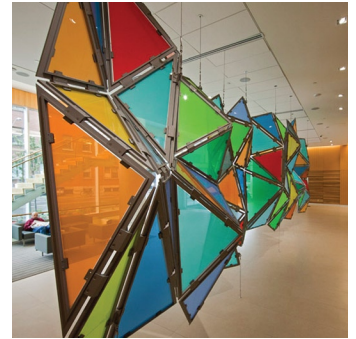

Highlights - The artwork, entitled "Hive Brane" is 4 meters high by 10 meters long and 2.5 meters deep (12.5 feet high x 33 feet wide x 7 feet deep) and is constructed of 114 uniquely shaped isosceles triangle frames, fabricated in painted aluminum, within which is installed a palette of 14 colors of translucent custom-colored glass.

A view of the front of the artwork

Detail of the construction of the artwork

A view of the reverse side of the artwork

An observer stands in front of the public art work "Hive Brane"